

The Weather.
Forecast for Thursday and Friday:
Kentucky—Showers Thursday and Friday.
Indiana—Showers Thursday and Friday.
Tennessee—Thunderstorms Thursday and Friday.

THE LATEST.

By an aye and no vote of 40 to 30 the Senate yesterday adopted the Finance Committee's recommendation restoring the Dingley rate of 30 cents a pound on wool to waste and other wastes. The House rate was 20 cents. Progressive Republicans generally voted with the Democrats against the increase. Speeches were made during the day by Senators Warren and La Follette, the former advocating, as on yesterday, a generally increased duty, while the latter contended, as on previous occasions, for a general reduction. The two Senators engaged in a sharp controversy, during which Mr. La Follette said that those in the Senate who believed with him had increased from nothing to a dozen. He said he expected further accretions from the East.

The United States post-office inspectors are convinced that they have rounded up the ringleaders of the Black Hand who have been operating in Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and other cities in the same territory. The letters seized, they say, show that the society was known to its members as the "Order of the Banana" and was well organized with secret grips and passwords. Nine arrests have been made and more are to follow.

The third arbitrator to settle the Georgia railroad firemen's controversy over seniority of whites over negroes will be selected this week. Congressman Thomas W. Hardwick, of Georgia, and Hilary A. Herbert, of Montgomery, were on Tuesday appointed arbitrators respectively for the firemen and for the railroad. They will select the third man.

Mobile was selected as the next meeting place of the United Confederate Veterans. Only one ballot was necessary, Mobile receiving a majority over all competitors. Gen. Clement A. Evans, over his protest, was re-elected commander-in-chief. The election came after a stormy session. The parade of veterans to-day will close the reunion.

The Rev. Johnston Myers, the Chicago pastor who on Monday insisted on the expulsion from the Baptist conference of Prof. George Burnham Foster, of the University of Chicago, author of "The Function of Religion," says eighty-one ministers have agreed to vote for the ouster of Prof. Foster.

While working in the slaughterhouse of his father, Taylor Collins, a butcher of Frankfort, Earl Collins, aged 25 years, slipped on the bloody floor, falling on the point of a butcher knife held in his hand. The blade pierced the young man's heart, killing him instantly.

The body of Charles Ettinger, a Socialist agitator, said in former years to have been one of the founders of the Spencerian College of Milwaukee, and to have been an associate of the late President W. R. Harper, of the University of Chicago, was recovered from the lake at Chicago.

The general average condition of crops in the United States on June 1, based on reports to the Department of Agriculture, is announced as approximately 4 per cent. below the conditions on June 1 of last year, but about 8 per cent. better than two years ago.

Officials of both the Venezuelan and American governments yesterday declared they possessed no information to substantiate the report that arms were being shipped from New York to Venezuela for revolutionary purposes.

A bronze tablet on the residence occupied by Jefferson Davis during the years from 1875 to 1878 was unveiled in Memphis yesterday by Miss Lucy White Hayes, granddaughter of the President of the Confederacy.

Announcement is made by officials of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company that the steel rail mill of the company at Bessemer, Ala., will resume operations to-day. About 1,500 men will be put to work.

John Norris, chairman of the Committee on Paper, of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, addressed the Senate Finance Committee in a plea for free wood pulp and lower duty on print paper.

A monument of marble or granite to cost about $3,500 is to be erected by the United States Government in the Confederate section of Fannin Point national cemetery at Salem, N. J.

Six men were killed and fourteen seriously injured in an explosion of a blast furnace at the Wheeling Steel and Iron Company, Wheeling, W. Va., last night.

John R. Eden, who had practiced law in Illinois for fifty-seven years, was found dead in his chair at his home in Sullivan yesterday.

Clarence J. Owen, of Abbeville, Ala., was yesterday elected president of the Sons of the United Confederate Veterans.

LEARN SECRETS OF BLACK HAND

Inspectors Sifted They Have Ripped Leaders.

Society Known As Order Of The Banana.

Proof That Outrages Were Work of Gang.

NEW YORK POLICE SCOFF.

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 9.—Revelations in the extortion, plotting and murder by the Black Hand as uncovered by the post-office inspectors from the Cincinnati office show conclusively that the gang in Columbus, Marion, Denison and Bellefontaine and other Ohio towns were organized along the same lines as the Mafia, but, if anything, with a much better system for concealing their movements.

It is now known that the Ohio Black Hand or the "Society of the Banana," as its members style themselves, has a branch in Pittsburgh and one in Chicago and a line that extended to South Dakota. Regular meetings were held in the city. The money obtained by extortion was distributed to various divisions in this country and sent to relatives in Italy for safekeeping.

An Organized Conspiracy.

"We have found what I believe to be certain proof that the Black Hand outrages, at least in the Middle West, including Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Chicago, Columbus and other Western cities, were committed by a well-organized society with grips and passwords, and that they are not simply sporadic cases of individual extortion," said Chief Post-office Inspector Holmes to-day.

"We have letters of the same hand writing and on the same watered paper, with the Black Hand emblem made with the same chromographic style that were sent to victims in Cincinnati and Columbus from the Black Hand members in Pittsburgh, Chicago and Cleveland. For instance, if a victim were selected in Cincinnati, as was the case in several instances, it would, perhaps, receive the first threatening letter demanding money on pain of death by a dynamite bomb from Marion, Ohio.

Second From Another City.

"The second letter would be written by the same person, but forwarded to the Black Hand in Pittsburgh, who would, in turn, mail it to the victim. If there were no response in a few days, then a third letter would be sent, this time from the Chicago Black Hand. In this way the organization concealed its movements and it has taken Inspector Oldfield and four other men six months to run down the leaders.

"We have no evidence, so far, that the American Black Hand in the West is connected with the foreign organization that killed Lieut. Petrosino in Sicily," continued Inspector Holmes. "The thousands of dollars sent by Black Hand members to Italy was simply their division of the spoils made at regular meetings, sent abroad to their innocent relatives for safekeeping."

Nine Arrests Made.

Nine arrests have been made, so far, in Columbus, Marion, Denison and Bellefontaine, all in Ohio, and the Government officers in Chicago and Cincinnati are to-night looking for Antonio Lima, brother of Salvatore Lima, who was arrested in Marion, Antonio, who eluded the officers at Sandusky yesterday, is considered one of the chief men in the day of Sam Lima, said another important arrest is expected in Cleveland, but the name is withheld by the inspectors.

An effort will be made to have the prisoners indicted by a Federal grand jury at Cleveland on the charge of conspiracy to commit extortion. In addition to the arrest of four Sicilians in Marion, Columbus and Denison Tuesday night, those arrested earlier in the day at Sam Lima, said to be the ringleader of the gang in the United States, and Joe Rizzo, in Marion; Antonio Marini, in Denison; and Antonio Marini, in Columbus.

These arrests were made on letters sent to John Amicon, a wealthy fruit grower, by the Black Hand. The inspectors state that they have evidence showing that a room in the rear of a little fruit store in Marion conducted by the Rizzos was the headquarters of the society in this country, and that they found in a safe there which they raided letters which throw light on many successful attempts to extort money from many wealthy Italians in Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania and other States.

Big Batch of Letters.

The letters confiscated last two large mail pouches. Some were received from points as far West as South Dakota. They show, the inspectors assert, that hundreds of Italian business men have been paying tribute to the Black Hand to secure immunity from death or torture at the hands of members of the society. Books showing the receipt of money and its division among members of the gang were also secured by the officers. The names of many active members of the Black Hand, together with the names of the prisoners, are now being guarded and its operations conducted. The inspectors declare they now have sufficient evidence to convict.

The similarity in the handwriting in the letters and the paper on which the threats were written to intended victims at widely separated points convinced the Government officers that the Black Hand operations were being systematically conducted and that there was in reality a national organization of the society, with a headquarters from which all of the activity of the extortionists was planned and directed.

Oaths and Passwords.

The Marion raid showed, they said, the soundness of this deduction. It is that the officers found that the society is an iron-bound organization, membership in which is invested with blood-stilling oaths, grips, passwords and signs.

The New York police officials who are clanking on the streets to work started by Joseph Petrosino, who was assassinated in Sicily, have been working on the theory that there is no extensive Black Hand organization, but that the operations have been conducted by individuals in different cities who have no connection with each other.

But the work of the Cincinnati inspectors tends to show that the New York experts have been wrong in their theory, and that not only has the Black Hand a national organization in the United States, but that it is directly allied with similar organizations in Sicily and is working in conjunction with the Mafia, or "Order of the Banana," as it has more recently been known in this country.

SHOUTS HIS INNOCENCE.

Sam Lima Says He Is a Victim of Black Hand Methods.

Columbus, O., June 9.—Sam Lima, Sam Rizzo, Sebastian Bataglia and A. Marini, leaders in the band of Ohio Black Hand members who were arrested by Federal authorities, were to-day served with Government warrants charging them with extortion, use of force and intimidation to extort money from John Amicon, a Columbus fruit dealer, and threatening him with bodily injury.

Lima, declared to be the censor and chief of a band of blackhanders, arrested Tuesday in his fruit store at Marion, O.; Rizzo and Bataglia, his fellow-townsmen and alleged co-conspirators, were taken to Toledo to-day by deputy United States marshals, where they will be given a hearing before United States Commissioner Gaines Monday.

"Black hand," Black hand? See my hands, they are white. My persecutors have black hands. They try to injure me and my business. They want to ruin my family." Deputy Marshals Owen and Wagner rushed the prisoner into a carriage before he could utter a word. He was taken to the jail at Marion, where he was asked to forward them to Amicon. This he did.

Marini was arrested to-day at Denison with deputies and Secret Service men. He is being held in the jail at Denison. He is being held in the jail at Denison. He is being held in the jail at Denison.

Antonio Marini, partner of Marini, who was arrested Tuesday, was taken to the jail at Denison.

(Concluded on 10th Page, 5th Col.)

ROBERT W. BINGHAM

ANNOUNCES FOR MAYOR

NEWS CONTAINED IN TELEGRAM FROM DEFIANCE, OHIO.

RETURNS TO HOME IN LOUISVILLE THIS EVENING.

SURPRISE TO SOME PEOPLE.

In a telephone message yesterday afternoon, Mr. Bingham said that he would arrive in Louisville at 1 o'clock to-night, and this led to the belief that he has a further statement coming.

Mr. Bingham was in Louisville for four months in 1907, having been appointed to the office by Gov. Beckham. He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson, and he was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

He was in the city at the time of the election of James G. Thompson.

CALLAHAN'S END DRAWING NEAR

Noted Mountain Feudist Dying From Wounds.

Friends and Physicians Give Up All Hope.

Alleged Assassins May Never Be Punished.

POLITICS PLAYS CHIEF PART.

Condition Becomes Critical.

For nearly a day and a half after he was shot his friends entertained hopes of his recovery, but beginning this morning he has had sinking and fainting spells all day and gradually growing weaker. To-night his friends have absolutely no hope of his recovery.

The two men arrested in Squab Creek in Perry county yesterday—Levi Johnson and Eliza Smith—were brought here by Sheriff Crawford at 10 o'clock last night in the midst of a heavy downpour of rain.

Never Put In Jail.

The Sheriff at once reported to Circuit Judge J. P. Adams, who directed that they might go at large. The prisoners accordingly secured pleasant accommodations at a hotel, where they spent the night. This morning they were about town looking up influential friends. Just after noon they decided to waive examination trial and sent for County Judge S. S. Taulbee to come up to the courthouse.

Smith and Johnson made known their request that the County Judge fix a reasonable bond. Judge Taulbee decided that $5,000 was proper bond for their appearance and this was executed at once with S. H. Harrel, County Court Clerk, and Tom Deaton, Republican nominee for Sheriff, as sureties.

Republicans To Recus.

The whole local Republican organization is lining up in the defense of these men and it is freely predicted that they will not even be indicted. Circuit Judge Adams to-day issued a call for a special session of the grand jury to investigate the shooting of Callahan. The jury will be impaneled Friday for the purpose of determining whether Johnson and Eliza Smith are the proper defendants.

Govan Smith Not Arrested.

It is reported here this evening that the name of Govan Smith, a brother of Eliza Smith, and a prominent Republican politician, will be considered by the grand jury, although he has not yet been formally arrested. Govan Smith is a nephew of James G. Deaton, the man whom Ed Callahan has been charged with having killed a good many years ago. His himself had a difficulty with Callahan at the last November election at Canine in this county.

Drove Callahan Away.

On the same occasion Tom Deaton, who is now Johnson's bondsman, led a party of armed men from George's Branch, where Judge Adams, Deaton and others were at work securing votes, across the mountains to Canine, and drove Ed Callahan and his friends away from the polls by force of arms. Since that time Callahan has been almost constantly harassed until this day, the day of his death.

BLOODHOUNDS FOLLOW TRAIL.

Capt. Mullikin Declares Right Men Have Been Arrested.

Lexington, Ky., June 9.—(Special.)—Capt. V. G. Mullikin, with his marching band, returned to-day from Breathitt county, where they assisted in running down the men who are charged with the attempted assassination of Ed Callahan Monday morning.

Capt. Mullikin in response to a telegram reached Jackson about noon Monday and Monday afternoon, accompanied by Sheriff Brock Crawford and a posse, proceeded to Crockettville, the scene of the shooting, and which is about twenty miles from Jackson, across the mountains. They arrived at Callahan's store, which was a short distance from the town, and proceeded at once to the abandoned coal pit nearby, from which the assassins had fled. They found the tracks of two men in the soft earth of the coal pit, which the Sheriff made careful measurement. The two bloodhounds were placed on the trail about midnight, and led Capt. Mullikin, the Sheriff and posse through the darkness up a ravine, across the hillsides, and continuing on the trail until they arrived at the house of Govan Smith.

Followed Trail Easily.

The hounds showed little hesitation and he little difficulty in following the trail steadily straining on their leashes as they followed the dog. The men who were caught in the rough country, Capt. Mullikin, who held the cords which restrained the dogs, and the Sheriff, were puzzled, stumbling along the rocks and through the underbrush until they reached the house of Eliza Smith and Levi Johnson, surrounded by about a dozen of their friends, all heavily armed. When told the object of the officers' visit they all turned and fled.

Will Increase Wages.

Big Stone Gap, Va., June 9.—(Special.)—Duffy, superintendent of the Stone Gap Coal and Coke Company, which has three operations near here, says that he has increased the wages of his employees by 10 per cent. This is the first increase in wages in the coal industry in Southwest Virginia.

(Concluded on 2d Page, 4th Column)

ELECTED OVER HIS PROTEST

Gen. Evans Again Head of Confederate Veterans.

Mobile Selected As Place of Next Reunion.

Taking of Vote Is Preceded by Stormy Session.

OLD SOLDIERS PARADE TO-DAY

Memphis, Tenn., June 9.—After re-electing Gen. Clement A. Evans commander-in-chief over his vigorous but futile protest, and selecting Mobile, Ala., as the next place of reunion, the United Confederate Veterans adjourned their business meeting to-night on the heels of a very stormy session.

The big feature of the reunion, the parade of the veterans, will be held to-morrow, and this parade will close the reunion of 1909. The only candidate for commander-in-chief placed in nomination was Gen. William M. Cabell, commander of the Trans-Mississippi division. Just before nominations were in order, Gen. Evans read an announcement to the convention in which he declined re-election. He said he had served in every capacity from the lowest to the highest and that he felt that the highest honor of the veterans' gift should be passed from one ex-Confederate in turn. But the veterans disagreed with him and by a vote of 1,540 to 744 for Cabell, re-elected him to command. With tears streaming down his cheeks and shaking with emotion, the stately and aged soldier bowed to the command of his comrades.

Stormy Session.

His election followed one of the stormiest sessions of the Confederacy, which old-time delegates can recall. After Mobile, Houston, Nashville, Chattanooga and Oklahoma City had been put in nomination for the next reunion, someone began to introduce outside speakers. Swelling in a temperature of over a hundred degrees, the veterans delegates objected strongly and yelled vigorously for a vote. But the disorder was too great.

At the conclusion of the session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

Memorial Association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion on the 21st anniversary of the birth of Admiral Stephen Decatur, was observed by the association.

At the concluding session of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association to-night, resolutions were adopted expressing the thanks of the association to the officers of the association, and Gen. Luke E. Wright, former Secretary of War, because of the restoration of the name of Jefferson Davis to the name of the holding of the reunion ties, and is now owned and operated by the Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railway Company.

LOOKING OUT FOURTH AT WALNUT.

THE COURIER-JOURNAL BUILDING.

LOOKING DOWN WALNUT STREET FROM FOURTH.

The band serenaded the Courier-Journal doughtnny yesterday.

THE ASHLAND SHRINERS WITH MISS HAAGER ON HORSEBACK. THE PIPERS CHEERED AS THE MEN WENT DOWN THE STREET. CRESCENT BECOMES FULL MOON OVER NEW ORLEANS' VICTORY. SHRINERS PROMISED TIME FOR THEIR LIFE. WHEN THEY GATHER AT THE TEMPLE OF JERUSALEM. SOUTHERN ARABS CELEBRATE THE NEW ORLEANS SHRINERS ARE NATURAL ENEMIES OF THE ARABS.

THE PIPERS CHEERED AS THE MEN WENT DOWN THE STREET. CRESCENT BECOMES FULL MOON OVER NEW ORLEANS' VICTORY. SHRINERS PROMISED TIME FOR THEIR LIFE. WHEN THEY GATHER AT THE TEMPLE OF JERUSALEM. SOUTHERN ARABS CELEBRATE THE NEW ORLEANS SHRINERS ARE NATURAL ENEMIES OF THE ARABS.

SPEND NIGHT CELEBRATING

Brother Bill Leaves.

Bill Henson, the biggest bronco of the El Paso herd, although the most silent, left Wednesday night for El Paso to carry on his usual antics. Henson, the El Paso had secured her charter and was no longer an infant, but a full-jledged Shiner, entitled to all the rights and immunities usually connected therewith, including the big burro patrol. Noble Henson was the first to leave, and the others returned directly to their homes, the remainder of the jubilant Texans going to the city to spend the night. Before returning to the big town on the grand old river of the Southwest, Nobles, A. A. Trammell, J. M. Wyatt will leave this morning for New York and other Eastern points. A. L. Williams will leave for St. Louis before returning. N. M. Walker

Tanglefoot Tequila.

Tequila Making.

The preparation of tequila for the market is one of the leading industries of the Mexican natives of the interior. The cactus resembling the century plant, is tapped at the base and the milky juice is collected in a gourd, from which the peons, by means of leather straps bound around the body, draw the juice, which is distilled in primitive stills until the baser ingredients are removed, when it is thinned with water and aged for months. Tequila is a favorite drink of the Mexicans, or cowboys, who round up the long horn steers of the Mexican plains. They carry their bottles of the tanglefoot in their leather saddle bags and take frequent shots at long rides or at the roundups.

While the people of Louisville may not have heard of the little town in the rain squalls struck town Tuesday and Wednesday, but not so with the people of El Paso. The little dash of rain Tuesday was the first the Texans had seen in weeks. The rain was just what was like a breath of cool air to a furnace stoker to feel the rain drops beat against the face. The people of El Paso and the El Paso Valley country of West Texas is a desert for it is so dry that the rain is a rare thing. But everything there is grown by irrigation and the running water from the

the hands of the El Paso Valley, making the city a big manufacturing center. The El Paso Valley rancher farms the same as a big manufacturer produces his goods, and there is no difference in the city's production than there is outside of it or any other business enterprise. His land is irrigated, and he has the water all that is necessary is to open a head-gate, start the water to running and the crops flourish. The city has been given a drink at the expense of the knows of the Colorado highlands. El Paso is a city of the great alkali desert of the Southwest and has little parks and playing spaces on every corner of the city and a large open place called San Jacinto Plaza, where hundreds of people gather in the evenings and listen to the music of the Mexican bands.

—•—

The story of how "Afti" became the "Afti" of Kato's life began about 18 months ago. Potentate Garretson took up his trusty rifle and hid himself to the haunts of the wild. He came upon a "big bear" in the fastnesses of the forest, and his rifle cracked true. The bear went down as a trophy of the hunt, and the trophy itself was made an orphan of his mother's arms. "Afti," who was close about, made his appearance and was soon in the hands of Noble Garretson. He was taken to Mr. Garretson's home at Tucuma and turned over to Sato San. Sato improvised a bottle for his bearship and named him "Afti," which means "my fellow forget" that he was destined of the forest or that he was the denizen

He loved Captain Noble Garretson, and well. He thrived on his nourishment of milk until he reached a stage of development when he was able to eat a little more solid food, for he could not eat meat, and is a husky, mischievous little fellow when he wants to be bad.

When "Afin" was taken to the "mascol," a Shriner temple, Noble Garretson determined to bring him to London, and he was taken to the city where he did, turning him over with due pomp and ceremony.

At the close of the patrol review at Douglas, the "Afin" played a part. Capt. H. C. Bunderum, of Afin Patrol, had "Afin" led out in front of the parade, and he was called by Capt. Bunderum, and Capt. C. C. Morris, of Koslar Patrol, and "Afin" over to him as a representative of both Afin Temple and Mr. Garretson. In representing Afin, Capt. Bunderum said:

"I surrender to Koslar our Afin." Take him and treat him tenderly, for he is a little fellow, and he wants to be a Shriner—his heart is right.

was said to be the mascot of Koorse in the future. Now "Affii" is a fighter, notwithstanding his tender age.
He met up with a big cat in the depot
at Portland, Ore., while on his way here, and before Sato San knew what was on, "Affii" had killed his cat. He has "cuffed" several dogs during his time also, and wants it understood that he will take "no foolin'." "Affii" is friendly enough if you wear a fex, but he is distant and dignified with the un-regenerated. No arrangements for the keep of "Affii" have yet been made, but no doubt he will fare well at the hands

OSMAN TEMPLE BAND
PLAYS STIRRING MUSIC.

Visits Courier-Journal Building and Serenades Bunch of Newspaper Men.

Under the leadership of John Fisher, grand secretary of the Masonic lodges of Minnesota, the Osman Temple band of St. Paul, Minn., playing choice selections, marched through the streets yesterday afternoon. Several hundred people gathered to listen when they stopped in front of the Courier-Journal

THURSDAY

Pilgrimage in the morning to the various commercial industries of the city, including such plants made famous by the "Big Tobacco Warehouses," where the horses chew tobacco and spit it out, and the "Big Rubber Warehouses," where the rubber is made. Then to the "Big Tobacco Warehouse" at Cherokee Park in the afternoon. There will be a parade from New Albany, Ind., participate in this great event, which will end in a hot time, the "Big Tobacco Warehouse" will be the habit forts have. Brilliant fullness Shriners ball at the First Regiment armory in the evening. The Shriners will be there and your gladdest smile. Keep your eye on the clock, for all El Paso Shriners will be in the city at 6 o'clock (that night or noon matters not).

[illegible][illegible]

Dallas, Tex.

Dallas, Tex., June 9. (Special).—W. R. Parker, former Deputy County Clerk of Dallas, who five years ago killed Frank Bell in the Dallas courthouse, was today the first of a line of perjurors. He was in jail on a charge of forgery.

Brief testimony shows this afternoon broke the hot water over North Texas, but did not remove the water famine this extended to the state.

Physicians and general agents of the Northern Central States

Duluth, Minn.

Duluth, Minn., June 9. (Special).—Duluth is in a gala attire in honor of the Commercial Travelers' Commercial convention. Fifteen hundred arrived this afternoon and 1,000 more members will arrive in the morning.

Physicians and general agents of the Northern Central States

President Fred Fleming, of the suspended Western Bank and Trust Company, and the other defendants in the criminal case against himself, Templeton and Elliott in the United States Court.

H. A. Lightb is arrested here to-day on telegrams from Chicago accusing him of absconding with a large sum of money obtained on false pretenses.

to inspect the company's terminal system here.

Second Vice President D. G. Kerr, of the Steel Corporation, was here to-day and said that more than 80 per cent of the corporation's blast furnace capacity is being used to produce the steel of industry and business is bright.

The Duluth Telephone Company is preparing to put a large force of men at work

Lincoln, Neb. June 9.—[Special].—Gov. Shallenbarger, to-day named the following members of the Board of Control:—Hon. J. W. Patterson, Board, Samuel Patterson, Arapahoe, members Board of Control, and Nebraska National Bank, Chicago, Ill., the Rev. H. M. Ransom and the Rev. J. W. Johnson, Lincoln, trustees

RAIDS MADE ON RESIDENCES.

Thieves who worked while the members of the families of John J. Maloney, a salesman, living at 324 West Breckinridge street, and Mrs. Mary McFarland, a dressmaker, living at 314 West Breckinridge street, were watching the parade Tuesday night, stole clothing, silverware and jewelry worth in the aggregate about $390. All the consolation the victims received from the augmented Police Department, according to Mr. Maloney, was: "You couldn't expect anything else," and "If you didn't want your house robbed you

When Mr. and Mrs. Maloney, together with their two children and Mrs. Maloney's sister, Mrs. Patricia P. Maloney, were awakened at 8 o'clock Tuesday night to go down town to watch the Shriners' parade, they locked the house securely. When they returned at 10 o'clock they found the place turned topsy-turvy and street, evening dresses, lingerie and silverware gone. The Police Department was notified and six detectives were sent to the address. Available at the Maloney residence, an investigation was made and it was found that the marauders had gained entrance by prying open a dining-room window. The place had been searched and had been thoroughly ransacked and all of the silver taken. Upstairs, the wardrobes and trunks belonging to the men-

out but nothing but feminine apparel was taken.

* * *

Packed Booty In Suit Case.

The thieves were wise enough to take Miss Polk's suitcase and it is supposed that they packed the booty in this and thus were able to go out on the streets without attracting atten-

Mr. Maloney made a complete report to the police of the articles taken. Yesterday morning, when he went down to the headquarters of the detectives and made an addition to the list, he was told point blank by some of the detectives, local and visiting, that the people of Louisville had been warned not to leave their homes unguarded during the gala week and that he got no more than was to be expected. "If you didn't want your house robbed you ought to have stayed at home and watched it," they said.

...

Jimmy Used On Another House.

While the police were at the Maloney house, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wolf, of 320 West Breckinridge street, returned to their home. When they entered the house, two dogs which had been locked in as a precaution, seemed to be frightened up. The animals had been locked in a front room, and when Mr. Wolf entered with one of the policemen, both dogs began to scratch on a door leading to the dining-room. Mr. Wolf opened the door and went to a side door, leading into the rear porch, and barked and sniffed in a manner that showed that some one had tried to get into the Wolf home. This proved that the dogs had been used in an effort that a Jimmy had been used in an effort to break the fastenings.

Raked With a Comb.

Mrs. McFarland and her brother, Bud McClary, of Bowling Green, left her home at 7:30 o'clock. They went down to Third avenue and Broadway, where they watched the parade and the crowd until about 10:30 o'clock. Mrs. McFarland had left a lamp burning in the front room of her home, and the first thing she noticed, and by which her suspicions were aroused, was that the light was out. Unlocking the door, she was unable to push it open without considerable effort. Mr. McClary forced the obstructions from the inside and squeezed in. It was found that a trunk had been rifled and that the tray had been placed against the door in such manner as to prevent its being opened readily.

After the lamp was relighted, the front room and the room adjoining it in the rear were found to have been gone over with a fine-tooth comb, and the drawers, closets and trunks and robes had been emptied of their contents and two silk dresses, a number of neckties, a pair of evening gowns and a pair of slippers, belonging to the patrons of Mrs. McFarland, had been taken, besides fourteen yards of silk on the roll and twenty yards of other material.

In addition to this a gold watch and chain valued at $25 belonging to Mrs. McFarland, a pair of diamond earrings, the McFarland home, and clothing belonging to Mrs. McFarland valued at Police Logic.

The police also took a look over Mrs. McFarland's home. It was found that the thieves got in through a front window which had been left open, but which had been securely closed by outside shutters. Mrs. McFarland's house dog was found so badly frightened that the little animal shook, and it was hiding under a bed in a rear room. The police told Mrs. MacFarland, "You ought to have better protection through the newspapers not to leave your home unguarded and that the lighted lamp served only as a beacon light which drew the burglars to her residence."

None of the goods has been recovered.

Toledo, Ohio.

Toledo, O., June 9.—[Special].—It is feared that discrepancies in the city cemetery funds will exceed $15,000. Many trust funds, it is now believed, have never been recorded. The State examiners will make a report as soon as the accounts are audited.

Acting Manager Rogers, of the General Electric Company, is here to close contracts for extensive additions to the plant.

The candidacy of City Auditor McDonnell for Mayor has been launched by Republican Independent.

Struck by a train at Oakwood avenue, L. J. Graves, of Dorr street, miraculously escaped death, though painfully injured.

Plunging from a load of hay when the horses started to run away, William Stillwell, residing west of town, suffered a

John O'Dwyer, new member of the Chamber of Commerce, convention committee, has left for Milwaukee to assist C. E. Young in an effort to secure the 1913 convention of the American Waterworks Association.

C. R. McKay, manager of the lighting and heating departments of the Railway and Light Company, has resigned. He becomes general manager of the Union Light, Heating and Power Company of Covington, Ky.

Jacob Morusky and Sarah Goldst are in jail charged with being engaged in the "white slave" trade. Five girls, all deported when the Government is through with them as witnesses.

Evansville, Ind.

Evansville, Ind., June 9.—[Special].—At the eighth annual State convention and reunion of the Indiana Elks held here to-day South Bend was selected as the next place of meeting by acclamation. Fort Wayne had been a candidate for the place early in the day, but withdrew her claim. This afternoon a band concert.

[illegible]

THE PIPERS CHEERED AS THE FILE
DOWN THE STREET

SOUTHERN ARABS CELEBRATE

[illegible]

♦ ♦ ♦

Gus Levy Happy.

In the meantime Gus D. Levy, potentate of Jerusalem Temple, who led the fight for his home city, was doing all kinds of stunts about the Headquarters in New York. He was shaking up the hands and smiling as his brother Shriners would congratulate him.

Representative of Jerusalem Temple in the Imperial Council, was also a hard worker for New Orleans. He was doing all kinds of things, the wall telling the boys how they "done" the thing. A splendid sight in the afternoon, when he was going to the marching into The Seebach and filling up the stairway to the red room to pay their respects and come to the members of Jerusalem Temple. This is the most gorgeous arrayed patrol at the meeting. The boys are dressed in their regalia and a visit from her boys is always considered an honor.

"We came to Louisville to take the meeting of the Imperial Council to New Orleans," said Charles E. Cornier, "and we made good. That is all there is to it. When we went to the committee appointed to select the place of meeting and fix the time we put it up so strong to them that there was nothing left for the other candidates to say. We promised to give the Shriners the time of their choice, and we made good. That is all there is to it. We promised as good as a gold bond. Gus D. Levy, Richard Lambert and myself went before that committee and we went there with the goods. The truth of the business is they could not turn us down, and we made good."

Five Months' Work.

"We started to work on securing the next meeting of the Imperial Council five months ago. We want it in a systematic way. We told the committee that we would give at night a reproduction of the following:

which are always given in the day time. The Shriners intend to do and it will do good to Shriners' hearts and to witness it. It will be a show worth going to see alone. The Shriners are sensible people and they know that New Orleans should have the meeting by right. I will say that I will be attending the ball to pay for the way we were treated both by the committee and the members of the Imperial Council.

Dr. Levy, potentate of Jerusalem, said that he was too full for utterance, not from an overabundance of spirits, but from an overabundance of joy. He said that he had seen the New Orleans boys certainly show the Shriners something to sit up and take notice of.

Southern Women Happy.

The women of the New Orleans delegation were in ecstasies all afternoon and last night over the victory in capturing the meeting. They were at headquarters all afternoon entertaining the hundreds of guests. And, it was not until after 10 o'clock last night that the room was free of music and there was space for a person to turn around. The band members were simply fagged out, but they said they would be all right this morning. More creole coffee and delicious gin fizzes will be on tap to-day.

Abba Enthused.

Other Southern temples joined in the rejoicing, the Shriners, including the Orleans next spring. The members of Abba Temple of Mobile were much interested in the Shrine and attended the next meeting. They are twenty-five strong here and are planning to have a temple here in the Jerusalem boys. The members of Hannassa Temple, of Meridian, Miss., are planning to have a temple in Maryland. The New Orleans delegation, Marvin and Discher and H. V. Wachtler, arrived Monday, April 1, to congratulate the New Orleans leaders after the fight was over.

At the reception the souvenirs of Jerusalem Temple were at a premium. People were so anxious to have one, that some were to be had, they went so fast. Photographs were taken and the celebrations would be begun at once for the entertainment of the Shriner's next year. The celebration was to be held at the time pointed at once and that everything would be in apple-pie order by the time the celebration was rolled into the next cent City.

It was probable that the St. Charles Hotel will be selected as headquarters for the Imperial Council and the representatives from the various temples to the Imperial Council.

Something Will Be Doing At the Big Ball To-night.

CLAN STEUART

Pipe Band of Winnipeg Proves Royal Host.

ENTERTAINS NOBLES AT FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL.

BEST MELODY FURNISHED BY SCOTTISH PIPERS.

REVELRY AND GOOD CHEER.

The headquarters of the Clan Steuart Pipe Band of Winnipeg, Manitoba, at the Fifth Avenue Hotel was the scene of almost indescribable events last night. Everything akin to fun was on the programme and hundreds of visiting nobles, their wives and sweethearts were there to partake of the hospitality that is found in Scotland. It lasted from early in the night until long after the midnight hour had come and gone and it will hold a place in the memories of those who were made welcome until the pipers come again to entertain and surpass their efforts last night.

Although the programme was opened shortly after 8 o'clock in the evening, the strong features did not appear until an hour or so after, when the big military band from Lu-Lu Temple, Philadelphia, arrived with their welcome serenade. The Quakers shook the building with march music, which was equaled in every respect by the Pipers, who responded. The applause from the hundreds of nobles and women who were guests was prolonged and loud and expressed the approval that words cannot describe.

Pipers Furnish Music.

Their visit over, the Lu-Lu boys departed for new fields to conquer and it was up to the pipers to supply the demand for melody, which was great. They were called upon again and again to respond to encores, which belonged to them by natural right, for they have an established reputation in the faraway country as musicians, and they always came back with something new and better. In fact, they seemed to improve as they went on, rather than show signs of fatigue, though it would seem almost impossible to improve on the initial number.

In addition to being musicians of exceptional class, the Pipers demonstrated that they are royal entertainers. They are singers, dancers and story-tellers, and the constantly increasing crowd of guests were glad to be present. When Sergeant J. Ironside danced the famous old Highland Fling, the whirl that every Scotchman and man of Scotch descent loves, the enthusiasm knew no bounds. It was simply great and that describes it all.

Sergeant Ironside occupied the center of the carpeted hall outside the refreshment hall fully ten minutes. He stepped lightly and ably through the various figures of the dance.

Scotch Reel.

Another dance that was appreciated and enjoyed to the utmost was a Scotch reel, executed by Sgt. J. Ironside, J. Duke, W. Morrison and D. Allen, all of the Pipers' band. Doubtless their dance is common to those who dwell in the native heath, but to the people of Louisville it was new and unique, and, therefore, good. Many sons of Scotland, who have made their permanent home in Louisville and who have never had the pleasure of seeing their native shores in years, were present and the sight brought tears to their eyes.

In years gone by, among the sages and wise men, there has been some speculation as to the real source of England's standing and her prestige among the nations of the world. It was explained last night. They have patriots who have pledged their allegiance, among whom are numbered the Clan Steuart Pipers. They all had silken British flags on their instruments that they gazed on fondly and with pride as the revelry went on.

The sword dance, executed by Piper Morrison, was a feature. Piper Morrison unsheathed his brightly polished weapon and made a crucifix of sword and scabbard on the tufted floor. One of his brother members of the band played the bagpipe while he danced all around the small space rapidly, stepping lightly between the small spaces and the sharpened blades without ever touching the instrument. He was applauded to the echo.

Gave Boys Serenade.

Fifteen pieces of the Syrian band from Cincinnati, led by Dr. W. S. Lark, who knocked on the door of the Winnipeg boys' headquarters and applied for admission into their merry midst, gave the boys a serenade. "Bunches of Joy" received their attention, a medley of favorite airs that called for vocal as well as instrumental work, and which ended with the inspiring strains of "Auld Lang Syne."

While all this was going on outside, the refreshments were being passed around in the banquet room. There was lemonade, "camel's milk" and red punch for all. Cigars and cigarettes in abundance were at the disposal of the men, while the fair ones had confections to delight them. These were dispensed by the following:

R. M. Macleod and W. F. Taylor, of Khartoum temple, and the following women:

Mrs. E. C. Mathews, Mrs. R. M. Macleod, Mrs. E. Rugg, Mrs. S. Handcomb, Miss M. Curran and Miss Buttery.

LOUISVILLE HOT AFTER HEPTASOPHS' CONVENTION.

Saratoga, N. Y., June 9.—Nomination of supreme officers was foremost in importance in the order of business taken up at today's session of the twelfth biennial convention of the Heptasophs, here. The election of officers will take place to-morrow. For supreme archon the following were nominated:

Morris Cohen, of Pittsburgh, the incumbent; Darius L. V. Moffatt, of Boston, and W. George Willis, of Baltimore. Invitations for the next convention were presented by Reading and York, Pa.; Milwaukee, Wis.; Atlantic City, N. J.; Saratoga Springs, N. Y.; Columbus, O.; Louisville, Ky.; Rochester, N. Y.; Detroit, Mich., and Cincinnati, Ohio.

HOT TIME

At Colored Jubilee For the Shriners.

DARKIES IN CAKEWALK AND OTHER STUNTS.

MOTHER AND SON CARRY OFF PRINCIPAL PRIZE.

NIGHT OF SOUTHERN SONGS.

Pickantries, with their faces buried in huge cuts of watermelon; the sporty young negro dressed in his "see-cran-suit" dancing a cake-walk with his dusky belle, dressed to kill; the old mammy and the old darkies singing their plantation melodies and every other interesting feature associated with the care-free life of the negro in years gone by in the South, were told in song, story and dance to a crowd that was estimated at 7,000 persons at the First Regiment Armory last night when 150 negro men, women and children took part in the "Grand Colored Jubilee and Festival," which had been arranged by Kosair Temple for the Imperial Council and other visiting Shriners and their women folk.

The visiting Shriners have been shown and treated to the things that have made Old Kentucky famous and last night they got a glimpse of the colored side. At first they seemed interested, then amused and then delighted. They entered into the spirit of the occasion with a vim that showed their appreciation of the old plantation melodies, which they themselves had sung hundreds of times, ringing clear from the voices of 150 darkies whose ancestors made these songs famous.

Women Enjoy Show.

The huge armory presented a dazzling scene with the balconies that skirt around its great floor space filled to overflowing with women gowned in the most part in filmy dresses. On the floor every seat was occupied. The first dozen rows of seats had been reserved for the imperial officers and representatives who turned out in large numbers with their women folk who seem to get more fun out of the entertainment than the apparent blasé Shriners who, in the parlance of the street, "have been up and down the line and seen it all."

While the old plantation melodies delighted the audience, yet they did not work them up to the point of enthusiasm that they displayed during the cake-walk. When the sporty negro danced and walked with his dusky belle the audience was just "tickled," for their applause was long and loud. The dusky actors were more pleased with the parts they were playing than if they possessed untold wealth. They strutted about like peacocks, tied themselves into all kinds of knots and then got up on their toes and strided across the stage with their partners with the haughty air of nobility.

Triumph For Singer.

While the cheesecloth curtain was still stretched across the platform the colored orchestra of twenty pieces under the leadership of James Clark struck up the air of "My Old Kentucky Home," while the clear, sweet voice of Mollie Robinson filled the great hall. The chorus of 150 joined in and at the close when the "curtain" was pulled back, the audience roundly applauded the brightly-looking colored woman who sang with the chorus. Then the negro jubilee entitled "In Dixie Land," which was nothing but a flimsy story of an old negro, "Uncle Eph Jones," who, just returned to Dixie from a ten-year sojourn in the North, finds his children and old friends celebrating the birthday anniversary of his wife, Dinah. This served as an excuse to introduce different songs and dances.

The singing by the chorus and principal was exceptionally good when it is considered that three weeks ago the theater and vaudeville committee of Kosair Temple, made up of C. A. Shaw, Al. Bourlier and Col. William Moffett, began the work of training and rehearsing this crude crowd of 150 negroes who had no idea of union or music, although they had good voices. The committee put considerable dependence in Joseph Clark, Jr., a young colored man, who led the chorus and was one of the principal characters of "In Dixie Land."

He Epher portrayed the part of the aged "Uncle Eph Jones" and handled it in a clever manner. Robert Clark was "Aunt Dinah Jones" and provoked a lot of fun. Joseph Clark, Jr., had the part of "Young Eph Jones." The three mentioned merely introduced the other characters and made the excuse for the songs that followed. As it requires a voice of great volume to fill the armory it was impossible to follow the different melodies except when the chorus was singing.

The cast of "In Dixie Land" was as follows:

"Uncle Eph Jones".....Joe Early
"Aunt Dinah Jones".....Robert Clark
"Young Eph Jones".....Joseph Clark, Jr.
"Lucinda Jones".....Mollie Robinson
"Cynthia Jones".....Nettie Taylor
"Sophia Jones".....Marie Chandler
"Sambo Simmons".....Leroy Taylor
"Deacon Sparks".....John Goodie
"Uncle Remus Jackson".....Elmo Mason
Children of Other Plantations.....by the Chorus

Stage Loaded With Watermelons.

When the cheesecloth curtain had been pulled back about fifty large watermelons rested at the side of the negroes on the stage. At a signal from Al. Bourlier these were cut open and in less time than it takes to tell it the one hundred and fifty colored men and women had their faces buried into huge cuts of melon.

In the dozen different songs that were given, duets, trios and jubilee fours introduced, no number made a more pronounced hit with the crowd than the song "Kinky" by Marie Chandler and chorus. In this number a kinky-haired "pick" of about three years of age danced with the young colored women that sang to the lot. The audience just got up in their seats when this feature was introduced and they called the pair back for a half dozen encores. None of the most popular of the Southern plantation melodies were left off the programme. The musical programme was as follows:

Mandy Lou—William Mitchell and chorus.
Good Old Georgia—Joe Early and chorus.
Old Black Joe—Early, Taylor, Elvis and Mason and chorus.
Kinky—Marie Chandler and chorus.
Take Your Hands Away—James Wells and chorus.
Down Among the Sugar Cane—Nettie Taylor and chorus.
Swanee River—Lulu Smith and chorus.
Come Along, Children, Come Along—Gubies four and chorus.
Mama's in the Cold, Cold Ground—Lake Lilly Quartet and chorus.
Ada, My Sweet Potato—Joseph Clark and chorus.

Jim Camp Names Judges.

Before the buck dancing commenced "Jim" Camp climbed upon the rostrum and announced that he would have to select judges to award the prizes, and he accordingly called for Judge Randolph Blain, Benjamin Brown, the Imperial recorder from Boston; Judge James P. Gregory, Frank Fahr, and illustrious Potentate George D. Young, of Kosair Temple. All of these nobles responded, and took seats on the rostrum to judge the contest. There were seven contestants who entered into the contest. The dancers were amateurs, but they pleased the crowd. Elmo Taylor was awarded first prize; Nettie Taylor, second prize; Mason, Martin, third prize; Crittie Burke, fourth prize. The prizes were in coin.

The Cakewalk.

While the buck dancers were skipping over the stage and twisting themselves into all kinds of knots, eight couples were putting on their glad clothes to take part in the cakewalk. The cake was brought in and placed on a table at the end of the stage, and as each of the eight couples passed it they saluted and bowed. Some of the colored men wore evening clothes, others Prince Albert coats, "ice cream" trousers with green stripes, and others wore natty flannel outing suits. The lanky dames were gotten up in their "Sunday Go-to-Meeting Clothes." The eight couples pranced up and down the stage by the judges several times, and as they fell back into line James Price appeared in a white broadcloth cut-away suit, white shoes and hat. The coat was faced with rose-colored satin, and it was indeed very "loud." He strutted up and down the stage, following each couple, and blew a shrill whistle when their time was up.

That old song "All Coons Look Alike to Me" was never more clearly demonstrated as it was in the cake walk. The last couple to dance were by far the most swagger looking of the whole lot and they were very graceful. The woman was dressed in white and carried a white parasol, while her partner wore a white flannel suit. The audience was with them from the jump and applauded every move they made. It was apparent that the crowd hoped to influence the judges by their applause, for when the cake walk came to an end the greater part of the audience was yelling "No 8," "No 8," which was the number of the last couple.

The couple looked as if they might be sweethearts, but when the judges announced them as winners it was discovered that it was mother and son—Nettie Taylor and Leroy Taylor. The second prize was won by Joseph Clark, Jr., and Mollie Robinson. The third prize went to Robert Clark and Eva Jones and the fourth prize was awarded to George Green and Marie Chandler.

The entertainment closed with the chorus singing "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

"BOB" YOUREX A NOBLEMAN, EVEN THOUGH NO SHRINER.

Business Partner of Past Imperial Potentate Alderman Here Attending Gathering.

"Bob" Yourex, the business partner of Past Imperial Potentate Ed Alderman, whose term of office as the head of the Shriners expired yesterday, is one of the party that came here as escort to the past imperial potentate, who says that "Bob" is the only Shriner who never "took the work." For fifteen years "Bob" Yourex has been attending Shrine caravans. His partner is, as everybody knows, one of the "big fellows" in Shrinedom. Many of his close, intimate friends are Shriners, yet he is not even a Mason, although every member of Al. Kahir Temple, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, swears that "Bob" is a full-fledged "noble."

Another weird and strange fact, considering the environment and the associates that he has kept, is that "Bob" Yourex is yet to take his first drink of "booze." While he doesn't know the taste of it, he can mix more drinks than any ten Shriners, and Noble "Billy" Haskell is willing to make a wager on that proposition.

Mr. Yourex is most popular with members of Al. Kahir Temple and accompanies the temple on all of its trips. There is never a good time that Al. Kahir plans that does not include "Bob" Yourex. Past Imperial Potentate Alderman says that he is the first man to be invited.

Mr. Yourex is an Elk, a life member of No. 4, of Chicago. He is a very enthusiastic Elk at that, but just how he ever escaped becoming a Shriner under the circumstances is a mystery that he doesn't clear away. At any rate everybody who meets him thinks he is a fine fellow.

BURNED TO CRISP

SIX MEN DEAD AS RESULT OF AN EXPLOSION.

Ten Others Fatally Injured and Others More Or Less Seriously Hurt.

Wheeling, W. Va., June 9.—Six men literally burned to a crisp; ten probably fatally injured, and ten more or less seriously injured is the result of an explosion at the Martins Ferry (Ohio) blast furnace of the Wheeling Steel and Iron Company.

Twenty-four others had miraculous escapes from horrible death or injury. At midnight fragments of four blackened bodies had been recovered. The other two victims will probably never be found. The twenty injured men, some with arms and legs burned off, and their bodies terribly burned, are being attended at a hospital at Martins Ferry.

Some of the injured, after being showered with the molten iron, ran screaming to the Ohio River near by and plunged into the water. They were quickly rescued and sent to a hospital. The accident to-night is the first to occur at this furnace.

PROSECUTION IS NEAR CLOSE OF ITS CASE.

Abraham Ruef Will Not Be Introduced As Witness In the Calhoun Trial.

San Francisco, June 9.—Assistant District Attorney Heney announced this afternoon that the prosecution's case in the trial of Patrick Calhoun will be complete at the hour of adjournment to-morrow. "I have every reason to believe," said Mr. Heney, "that all the evidence we intend to present will be placed before the jury by to-morrow night."

Mr. Heney's statement was accepted as an acknowledgment that Abraham Ruef, the political boss, convicted of participating in the bribery with which Calhoun is charged, will not be called as a witness by the prosecution.

Although the attorneys for Calhoun refused to make any statement to-night it is probable that no witnesses will be called by the defense. If this course is followed the opening argument for the prosecution will probably be made by Assistant District Attorney John O. Gara on Friday, and the case will certainly be submitted to the jury next week.

During the day Alexander Latham, former chauffeur for Abraham Ruef, was questioned concerning his departure and absence from the State during preceding graft trials. Latham refused to answer on the ground that he might incriminate himself.

Regimental Parade At Douglas Park Following Auto Races Yesterday.

GOOD REPORTS

Duke's Gift To Trinity.
Durham, N. C., June 9.—A gift of $50,000 to Trinity College from B. N. Duke, the tobacco magnate, was announced to-day. The gift makes Trinity one of the most wealthy endowed colleges in the South.

We now read of the construction of a special high-angle, long-range ordnance to act as airship destroyers. There is good reason to believe, however, that

Mrs. Van Derveer, of Versailles, spoke in the orphanage as the home industrial report showing a good grasp of the practical side of asylum management. The evening meeting was lighter character with some fine music to va-

For the transmitting of the note the operator sits before a small plain keyboard, the keys of which are connected electrically with the wireless transmitting apparatus. The notes are sustained as long as each key is depressed, and they may be changed instantly to any other that is desired.

10

Topeka, June 2.—Dover 5, 3, 1; Topeka local held.

FULL REPORT

Dealing With Consolidated
Schools In Indiana.SUBMITTED TO JEFFERSON BOARD OF EDUCATION.VISITATION COMMITTEE DOES ITS WORK WELL.

MAKES SOME SUGGESTIONS.

New Styles In Panamas
$3, $5, $7.50
and $10
A Saving
of $1 to $5Genuine Panama Hats, good, smooth, one-
piece, bodies, and
in first-class style, for $3—the kind generally
sold at $4.Better Panamas at $5, $7.50 and $10—a saving of $2.00 to $5.WE IMPORT Panamas
and have them
bleached by a special,
non-acid process,
which toughens rather
than injures the
straw, and blocks into special styles different from the ordinary.Rakish shapes for the young fellows, and all the standard styles.Come to "Panama Headquarters" and
see the new things.
Shirners will find their mighty comfortable
and take off their feet.

LEVY'S Third & Market.

The Bright Spot
in Louisville.

Courier-Journal

THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 1909

CITY FEATURES.

$10,000 Order.

[Knoxville Sentinel.]

What is perhaps the largest chilled pork sale on record in recent years was made by the William J. Oliver Manufacturing Company yesterday, when the Gale-Hooper Company, of Memphis, contracted with the big Knoxville concern for 11,000 worth of William J. Oliver pork for immediate delivery. "Made in Knoxville" is the slogan."Few sales aggregating a larger or as large an amount than this have ever been made by any pork manufacturing establishment, even though in the business for many years, but certainly a sale of this magnitude is the largest ever made by any concern in the line, and for the short space of time marking the introduction of the William J. Oliver improved chilled pork," says Mr. Oliver. In the meat world it is regarded as a training in the art of the business, and the extraordinary popularity of a plant comparatively unknown. The reporter found Mr. Oliver in his private office, flanked by his agent in Kentucky, Will H. Hays, of the Ross Seed Company, of Louisville, and George S. Hooper, managing partner of the Memphis concern contracting the sale. The reporter's question was referred to Mr. Oliver, who, he says, has experience with more different makes of chilled pork than any other man in the South today. Mr. Ross without hesitation replied:"Well, that is a very easy question to answer. The model used in the William J. Oliver plant is one of the best years of service in the field has demonstrated to be the most efficient. Now, when you strengthen in any article those features which in other articles are weak and at the same time improve its construction by simplifying it where others are complicated, you are getting pretty close to perfection in any line. Such is true of the William J. Oliver plant, we have the combined good points of all other chilled pork plants, our pattern representing as it does the crystallization, you might say, of all attempted improvements in chilled pork plants. The plant is built with the main troubles found in other chilled pork plants, at the same time retaining all of the good features of the old plant. It may sound, the William J. Oliver plant is totally unlike any other plant, evidence of which is borne out in the fact that every piece entering into its construction is fully patented."Patented rods, fountain serving pure ice cream made by the NATIONAL ICE CREAM CO.PURE, Clean Milk and Cream obtainable from NATIONAL ICE CREAM CO.CHIEF BILL CLERK GETS NICE PROMOTION.C. M. Arrow, chief clerk in the local office of the Southern Railway Company, has just been appointed chief clerk of the traveling freight agent of the Southern at Kansas City, vice P. H.
Loudridge, resigned. Mr. Arrow has been chief clerk here for two years and was formerly traveling freight agent for the company at Lexington, Ky. His promotion to a better position, which was announced yesterday by R. L. Moss, is well deserved, as he is well posted on all railroad matters and has been of great service in the service who will with him in his new duties. The appointment becomes effective June 15.CECILIAN CHORAL CLUB TO REPEAT "EL CAPITAN."The Cecilian Choral Club, owing to many requests, has decided to give a repetition of Sousa's brilliant opera, "El Capitan," on Monday, June 14, at the Majestic Theatre."El Capitan" was presented by the Ce-cilian Choral Club at the Majestic Theatre and the public was surprised at the excellent and brilliant rendition of the opera. The same capable cast and chorus, without exception, will appear in the repetition, and another brilliant success will be secured.

A Food to WORK On

Not a food that fills you up and makes you sluggish for a few hours and then leaves you hungry, but one that carries you through a hard day's work—getting you home with a springy step and a healthy appetite.—That's FAUST BRAND SPAGHETTI.The very food for spring and summer. Makes firm muscle. Nourishes and sustains without burdening the digestion or overheating the body like a meat diet.FAUST BRAND
SPAGHETTI

RECIPES

Stowed Faust Spaghetti

Boil and drain one-fourth pound Faust Spaghetti; put into a saucepan two ounces of butter; mix with two tablespoonsful of four; mellow with one-half pint of stock,
and one gill of cream; salt and white pepper to taste; add the spaghetti;
let it boil, and serve white hot.enables the careful housewife to set a good table every day and at the same time literally make the meat bill look like "thirty cents." Get a package to-day and try this recipe. Then write for the book of 23 other recipes, free on request.Sold in sealed packages only. Five and ten cents. Nearly all grocers.

MAULL BROTHERS, St. Louis, Mo.

MANSLAUGHTER

Charge Grand Jury Lays At Door of Archie Hand.AUGUSTUS BROTHERS AND MA-LONEY ALSO CHARGED.TAYLOR LONG, COLORED, GOES FREE OF ACCUSATIONS.

IN THE COURTS YESTERDAY.

New High School Building.

The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beautiful and commodious high school building at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.The town of Franklin, the county seat
of Johnson county, with a population
of less than 5,000, is putting up a beau-
tiful and commodious high school build-
ing at a cost of $90,000, up to date in
every particular, including the vacuum
system of heating.The running expense of this school is
paid for by the per capita tax of $2.00
from the State, the township tuition tax
not to exceed 50 cents and the district
school tax not to exceed 50 cents.There are five schools concentrated
here, aggregating a total of 100 pupils.
The school is a full grade school, and
is expected to open in the fall.This township has expended
over $400,000 in the last seven years in
school buildings, erecting five new large
buildings on the consolidation plan and
five smaller buildings.